

The Financial Mastery Promise

Here's what we feel we owe to each other. It's what we want our relationship with you to be based on. There are many things you can expect from us. And just 3 things we expect from you. If you have any concerns at all with hits, we are happy to discuss what you feel would be fair.

We Must...

- We must work to hold you to a higher standard than you hold yourself, and keep you accountable to your best results.
- We must train you in the financial mastery through the modules.
- We must answer your questions on the live question and answer trainings.
- We must do the work with you live in the seminar, so you don't leave with a to-do list, but you leave with the work done.
- We must connect you with your new tribe, a high-performance, high-support community that meets online 24/7.
- We must coach you every week, so you are never more than 7 days away from the answers you need.
- We must give you access to the online modules of financial mastery.
- We must listen to you. We will be accessible and respond to your requests within two business days.
- We must treat you with class and care in every interaction and work to bring out your best.
- We must apologize if we ever let you down, and do our best to make it right.
- We must not let you off. Because if we let you off, we let you down.

You Must...

- You must be quick to implement, quick to ask for help when you need it, and quick to share your wins and lessons.
- You must keep your commitment, participating fully and paying your program fees on time and in full.
- You must respect our IP. That means you may teach our individuals (with proper attribution), but not to groups or in public.
- If we ask (we don't ask everyone), we'd like you to try and refer at least three people of your caliber. Someone who you feel would enjoy the things we offer. This means we can spend less time looking for clients, and more time helping you win.
